

Philippians 1:9-11

9 And this I pray...

► that your love might abound yet more and more in acknowledgment and all perception, 10 that you may be able to put matters to the test and discern what is superior...

► that you may be sincere and free from anything offensive as we approach the Day of Christ. 11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

HEAVENLY FATHER,
I open up to the enabling grace you are ready to give me. Your grace has saved me. Let me know yet more of its saving power. It has healed me. Let me know more of its healing power. Let me know its sustaining power in what I face today. And, let me be a channel through which Your grace can move on to others, especially those who are locked in their prisons of pain and don't know how to reach you.

Grace! Grace! Redeemed

The Cry of the

T here is a conviction deep within our hearts that there is to be a people mature and ready for the days of trouble that are bearing down upon us as we wait for the end-time appearing of our Lord. I am convinced that the time is too close upon us to fool around. Things we've gotten by with before will only cause defeat. We're asking Him to work on our inner man, the eternal part of us, with a view toward making us ready for the day of Christ. It is here that whatever quality of character His grace has worked in us will count. It's how we will function with Christ in His Kingdom. Paul had this same conviction in Philippians 1:

6 Being confident of this very thing, that He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

There can be nothing more urgent than the power of God's Grace working in the lives of believers. It is only through this power that any of us will be able to stand in the final hour. Grace is from the Greek charis. It means the beautiful favor God extends to us in our greatest need. When we have nothing to place in His loving hand except our bruised and helpless soul, we find His grace.

Paul points us to a celebration of God's grace in his Epistle to the Ephesians. It is a celebration, in word, of God's grace revealed in Christ Jesus. Paul tells of Jesus as the One in Whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His Grace—Ephesians 1:7. Grace abounds toward us in the Redemption with an opulence that confounds the strength of every bondage. Just as we hear of a redemption yet to be realized, there is a release of grace yet to be known in it fullness...Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies (Romans 8:23).

Dear Friends, Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. Philippians 1:2

You haven't heard directly from me in quite some time. I've gone through a time of testing, but I'm coming through feeling years younger. It's like I've been on a long retreat, with a good bit of ministry thrown in. This time, the ministry was just letting Jesus shine through me to people who were hurting like I was. When I stepped out of my own circle of pain and took on the concern for others in their pain, my own pain subsided and I found it a good thing to be where I was. As I think back on it, it was like a ministry trip.

Day by day, as I've been studying the Word, the conviction has been growing in me to share more of the understanding coming from the prophetic Words of David, Daniel, the Lord Jesus, Paul and the Apostle John. Oh, what a sweep of grand prophecy, all leading up to the Day of the Lord, these anointed men of God have left for us! I've chosen The Last Estate as the theme of the series referring to the last anti-Christ who will stand in the office occupied through the ages by various persons such as Nimrod, Alexander the Great, Hitler, and so on. There have been many who have risen to heights of oppression in their marauding attacks on human-kind. But, we seem to be heading toward the time when the last anti-Christ, the real and final one, will enter the office created in the earth by Nimrod, a great grand-son of Noah.

We will begin the new series in the New Year but, truthfully, to get this series to you will take some miracles all along the way. But we've become accustomed to miracles so it's not beyond us to expect them. Many of you, as with us, are facing a financial crunch like never before. But we cannot let it defeat us or even deter us. The absence of our own ability to figure things out has pushed us deeper into the mind of Christ! Never has there been the continuing need to keep our attention on Him, listening for His voice, watching for His movements, loving Him and keeping ourselves open to what He would have us know.

For years I've spent time pouring over God's Word as it points toward the Day of the Lord. I've come to realize I have learned things from His Word that I've never shared with you. I believe that time is now upon us. This Scripture caught my attention when I heard a brother speak on it some years ago. Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old—Matthew 13:52.

We look forward to your being with us. Please don't miss out. Free-will offerings will enable us to send out the editions to as many as possible. Some can give. Others can't, but we MUST KNOW that you want to receive them. Many of you who can give a little more will enable us to send these prophetic editions to the many prisoners who will request them, as well as those overseas who want all the materials they can get from us. We appreciate your joining with us in getting these little, but important, books on the time of the end to as many as possible. Please know that we are grateful to those who have been so faithful in your prayers and your support. You are an important part of this ministry. Please do not cease to keep us in your prayers. They are very important to us.

In the Love of Jesus, Ed Corley

Note from Susanna,

This past year has been a difficult one for us, as well as many of you. We want to thank those of you who have faithfully stood with us through these trying times. Without you, as well as guidance from the Spirit of God, we would not be able to do what we do. I feel in so many ways we have not given all we should have, but we have given all we were able.

Plain and simple, if any of us could do something on our own, we would. It's human nature. When trials becomes too intense many give in to despair and fear! Fear has tried to sneak in on me when I've been weak or tired or sick, but despair has not been able to gain a foothold because I know that it is all in God's hands. Instead, the troubles seem to be drawing me into a deeper intimacy with His Grace. I've come to know it in a way I never really knew before. These are the times when we have to put His Word into action. To trust Him. To just fall into His loving arms with brokenness. He will catch us. He will hold us. He will provide. He always does. I think Paul sums it up well here in Philippians 3:8...

Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

The studies this year have been such a blessing to me. In spite of our intentions, they have come around to Grace time and time again. The more I've learned about grace, the more I see there is yet to learn. In fact, the more we need it the more it reveals itself to us. Through it all, I have grown and moved into a whole new realm of God's Grace. It has nourished my spirit and encouraged my soul. I am thankful for everything that has brought me to this point.

As I yearn and hunger after a deeper relationship with my Lord and His Word, He keeps pulling me and my whole family further and further into impossibility. His Grace has pulled us through time and time again. But, it has only strengthened our faith because through all the trials, He has every time proven faithful. At times we have to lean on it for our very survival. But, I've grown more comfortable leaning out over the edge and living with impossibilities.

When I find myself in hopeless situations, weak, broken down and confused, God has met me right there with His Grace. Sometimes the situations demand miracles. And the miracles come. Sometimes it is through many of you that these miracles have come. Sometimes it is plain and simple the Hand of the Lord that has brought healing and renewal. The Lord and His Love and Grace never cease to amaze me. At times my heart is filled with praise and joy though at times it is heavy. But, I see Him molding me and preparing me for a calling not yet realized.

We cannot thank you enough for your obedience and your sacrifice. We thank you and bless you for standing with us in your prayers and support. We believe it could be the most important year to share the secrets of the Kingdom and spread the truth to the nations. There are many who are hungry and don't know where to find the truth. We have never felt such an urgency to reach out and make the truth available to them. God has been preparing us for these days, so as testings and trials come our way, His Grace is available with all its power and wonder. We love you all so much and wish to see you face to face....

Blessings upon Blessings, Susanna
